

2018 Book Club Report

Submitted by Amy Eklund

The BUUF book club continued to meet this year and discussed a variety of fiction and non-fiction works. Attendance numbers varied from as few as 2 to as many as 10. While Friday's are consistently chosen for the meeting date, the exact date varies according to members' availability. Members take turns hosting the meeting in their homes and books for discussion are chosen by mutual agreement.